Pollock Wins Out.

Mr. Gilbert K. Pollock moved to substitute for the first section of Dr. Wood's resolution that which appears in the next column and it was finally adopted and the resolution as thus perfected was agreed to by an overwhelming vote.

When all the resolutions and amendments had been suggested, Mr. Manning took the floor and moved that they be laid upon the table pending action by the City Democratic Committee as to the manner of selecting delegates. Mr. Manning said it was evident that outside matters had been injected and the motives of some of the members had been questioned. He wanted delay so that the city could proceed intelligently.

After the defeat of Mr. Manning's motion, the question recurred on Mr. Pollock's substitute and it was strongly advocated by Mr. Meredith (Mr. Folkes in the chair). Wanted Prompt Action.

Wanted Prompt Action.

Mr. Meredith declared that there should be prompt and declaive action. While he would desire to be relieved of the delicate task of selecting the nominating committee, since outside matters had been brought into the fight, either by talk or intentionally, still he would shirk no responsibility, however unpleasant. He believed that Mr. Pollock's substitute pointed out the wise course in view of the object to be accomplished.

While the questions relating to State committeemen and State primary matters might crop out now and then, the Parker Club should ignore all else and strive to attain the object of the organization, which was to secure a strong Parker delegation to the State convention.
